

Overview of Sarum College

The College is nourished by its location in Salisbury Cathedral Close both spiritually and aesthetically, and draws on its own long and continuous tradition of prayer, worship and study since the foundation of Salisbury Theological College in 1860.

Prior to the current temporary closure, people have come to Sarum for a variety of reasons: to retreat and take a break from ministry; to read, pray and think; to engage in serious postgraduate study; to train for ordination or lay ministry; to attend day programmes or explore spiritual direction; to stay for B&B, conferences, or to visit art exhibitions.

Education programmes

The educational work of Sarum College is structured within Centres that broadly reflect extant and emerging distinct areas of Sarum's work. We are now accelerating plans to expand the online learning offer.

There are three distinct forms of educational work in these Centres:

- (i) Short courses which provide a wide range of adult learning opportunities for students who are learning for leisure or seeking some professional development;
- (ii) BA and MA degree programmes specifically oriented towards ordained ministry, offered through Durham University Common Awards and managed by Sarum's Centre for Formation and Ministry; and,
- (iii) Postgraduate study at MA level validated by the University of Winchester.

Hospitality

The College has 50 bedrooms and seven meeting rooms. We have historically operated a busy conference centre with B&B accommodation alongside our core work as a specialist theological education provider.

In addition to providing meals for staff, students and delegates, kitchen staff cater for individual and group functions, special events and offer an external catering service.

The College has invested heavily to upgrade accommodation and refectory facilities and has a business plan based on continued growth of these revenue streams.
